AN EX-REBEL OFFICER ROBBED-ARREST ON EUSPICION.—On the 4th of August last, Charles E. Aisens, an ex-Rebel officer, while passing through the Bowers, had his pocket picked of a wailet containing $100 in Trensury notes, and $103 13s, in the form of a Altens, an extreet offineer, white passing through the Bowery, had his pocket picked of a wailet containing $100 in Trensury notes, and £103 12s, in the form of a draft, drawn by Jose San Roman of Matamoros. Mexico, at sixty days after sight, to the order of Charles E. Aikens, on Messrs. F. De Lizerdl & Co, of London. England. The draft was dated Matamoros. July 13, 1865. On the 8th of August, a draft exactly answering the description of the one given above was presented by astranger at the banking office of Messrs. Hall-gartner & Hersfield, No. 28 Broad-st. The presenter was accompanied by one William Farley, or Varlay, better known as "Reddy the Blacksmith." The atranger stated that he was the Charles E. Aikens mentioned in the check, and said that it had been sent on to him by some relatives in the South. The firm refused to cash the check on the ground that he was not sufficiently identified. Failey then said that he would youch for the truth of the representation of the stranger, and on his voucher the check was cashed. The sum of $429 91 in gold was handel to the stranger; he indexed the check with the name mentioned, and Farley also the orders at the bill of exchange. The bill was forwarded to 542) 91 in gold was handed to the stranger; he indorsed the check with the name mentioned, and Farley also indorsed the bill of exchange. The bill was for without to London, but before its arrival Aikens had written to it, e house of De Lizerd, acquainting them with his loss, and payment was accordingly prevented. On the above statement by Mr. Hallgartner, Justice Hogan issued his warrant for the arrest of Farley, and he was taken into custody on Saturday by Officer Doyle of the First Precinct, and held to ball in the sum of $1,000 by the magistrate. He is aged 31 years, and keeps a liquor store at No. 7 Chatham-square.

PATENT AGRAPME ARRANGEMENT.

REASONS FOR PURCHASING A STEINWAY PIANOFORTE IN PREFERENCE TO ALL OTHERS.

First—The fast that they have been awarded the fast premiums both in Europe and America by the most competent and inflexible of indice.

SEGOND—The fast that all their "scales, improvement and peculiarities of construction" have been copied by a large majority of the manufacturers of both permiaphers as closely at SECOND—"The construction" have been copied by a later maperillarities of constructions of both consistences a closely account be done without intringement of patent rights; thurst most superiority over all others.

THIRDLY—The fact that a large number of manufacturals, and "Associations" profess to make planefortes candif his been in their capity as forces of dorsement for their own instruments.

FOURTHLY—The Jack that while the majority of the under makers manufacture their planes in several separate shops set purchase the actions, some also the keyboards, and even the cases for their instruments, ready made, every portion of a "Steinway" Piano, from its incipiency to its compacting, is manufactured in one immense building, under the immediate personal superintendeme of the Mesers Steinway, faiter and three some, thus insuring perfect uniformity and narries associated.
